

ACTION RESEARCH READING LIST

General Information on Action Research in ehealth

- o Handbook on AR. Includes a nice introduction to the basis of AR as well as some other relevant chapters. (Reason & Bradbury, 2008)
- o Discussion of how AR can be implemented in healthcare and what benefits this brings (Bradbury & Lifvergren, 2016)
- o Description of how AR related to the field of Human Computer Interaction and where opportunities lie (Hayes, 2011)

Action Research Ethics

- o Ethical challenges in AR including recommendations for researchers (Lake & Wendland, 2018)
- o Ethical challenges regarding each aspect of the AR definition (Kwan & Walsh, 2018)
- o Guidelines for ethical AR, e.g. points of attention for ethical dissemination. Includes links to other sources (International Collaboration for Participatory Health Research (ICPHR), 2013)

Action Research with Older Adults

- o Literature review describing barriers for real involvement of older adults in AR (Corrado et al., 2020)
- o Example of a project that actively involved older adult volunteers (Bendien et al., 2020)
- o Other examples of AR projects that include older adults (Callén et al., 2009; Lehto, 2017)

Action Research Reporting / Dissemination

- o Example of a project that used dialogic, digital communication (Canto-Farachala & Larrea, 2020)
- o AR dissemination on different platforms and with different goals (Sommer, 2009)
- o Reporting guide for AR papers (Smith et al., 2010)
